Moroni Quezada

Mata Ortiz &
Casas Grandes

Born in 1993, Moroni Quezada is the son of potters Rito Talavera and Lydia Quezada (Juan Quezada's youngest sister). Moroni began working with clay when he was just 7. He eventually learned the entire process from his parents, including the black-on-black-on-black that his mother is famous for.

Moroni forms and paints his own pots because, in his words, "It's fun." He also admits to enjoying the painting part most.
